

DR. JAMES E. COLEMAN, JR.

Dr. James E. Coleman, Jr. holds a B.S. Degree in Political Science and Public Administration from James Madison University, Master of Divinity Degree from Virginia Union University, Master of Theology Degree from Duke University, and an earned Doctorate from United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio. Coleman is also a graduate of the 2001 Harvard University Summer Leadership and Community Development Institute.

Coleman is a husband, father, son, published author, and activist at the local, state and national level. He has previously served on the Lynchburg Planning Commission. Among many other responsibilities, Dr. Coleman is currently the Chair of the Lynchburg City School Board and Finance Chair of the Virginia School Boards Association Board of Directors. He is a member of the Executive Committee, Virginia High School League, advisory board member Truist Bank, Social Justice Chair, Virginia Baptist State Convention, and Second Vice President of the Baptist General Convention of Virginia.

Dr. Coleman is the Senior Pastor of Providence Transformation Church International in Lynchburg, Virginia and serves as the Faculty Chair and Director of the Doctor of Ministry Program at Virginia University of Lynchburg. Coleman has also served as an instructor at Central Virginia Community College.